NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise."

CONFESSIONS OF MURDERERS.

Unable to eat or sleep under the prickings of his conscience, he de lared, John Wachince, twenty-three years old, an Austrian baker, last night confessed to Coroner Julius Harburger, in New York, according to a statement made by the coroner, that he was the murderer of Mrs. Maggie Gordon, who was choked to death at her home on Second street last Sunday. The woman's common law husban l, Alexander Gordon, had been arrested in connection with the crime and remanded to the Tombs prison to await an inquest. Wachince, according to the coroner, said that the Gordon woman called him into her home as he was passing. He said he had been robbed and otherwise had suffered at the hands of women, and had long nursed a desire to be revenged upon some of them. An irresistible impulse came to him to kill the woman, he declared, and he choked her to death. The coroner also stated that Wachince also confessed to having stolen $3 55 belonging to Maggie Gordon Wachince read the story of the crime in the newspapers and of the arrest of Alexander Gordon, he said, and he could not bear to think that an innocent man might be sentenced to death for a crime another had committed. He told a friend what he had done, and this man notified the police, who arrested Wachince.

Mrs. Gordon, with her husband, had gone to New York from Pittsburg, a month ago.

Louis Dabner yesterday afternoon confessed to Chief of Detectives Duke in San Francisco, that he and John Siemsen, who was arrested with him for assault on Jeweler Behrend last Saturday, had committed a number of the crimes that recently have startled the city. He stated that he and Siemsen killed William Pfitzner and William Friede, merchants, robbed the Japanese Bank and murdered Cashier M. Munatake, and also robbed Dr. T. D. W. Leland, though for this crime another man is now serving imprisonment. Dabner made a full and free statement regarding all these and other crimes of which he and Siemsen had been suspected since their arrest. Dabner stated that the amount taken from the Japanese bank was $4,200.

DISMISSED IN DISGRACE.

Unprecedented in the history of the army of the United States is the action of the President, just announced, in dismissing in disgrace from the army, an entire battalion of colored troops, because of their failure to disclose the identity of some of their number who had been guilty of violence and murder.

Acting upon a report made to him by Brig. Gen. E. A. Garlington, inspector general of the army, every man of Companies B, C and D, of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, will be discharged without honor from the army and forever debarred from re-enlisting in the army or the navy, as well as from employment by the government in any civil capacity.

The refusal of members of the battalion to give to Gen. Garlington, or to their immediate superiors, the names of the men implicated in the shooting of citizens at Brownsville, Tex., near Fort Brown, where the troops were stationed, on August 13, led the inspector general to recommend the discharge of all of the men, and the President concurred.

On August 13 some of the enlisted men of the battalion, which is to be so summarily punished, engaged in a disturbance in Brownsville, for no particular reason, as far as the investigation shows, which resulted in the killing of one citizen and the chief of police of the town was so badly wounded that he lost an arm. The case dragged along and finally Gen. Garlington went to Texas to make a personal investigation.

The men were given a full opportunity to tell "all that it is reasonable to believe they know concerning the shooting." It was impossible to fix the guilt. Gen. Garlington says in his report that the men appear to stand together to resist the detection of the guilty, and that for this reason they should stand together when the penalty falls.

As an evidence, however, of his intention to be fair to the colored troops, the President has accompanied this action by an order which may amount to the court-martial of a white army officer of high grade, Col. William L. Pitcher, who was charged with having cast slurs upon the colored troops.

DEMANDS REFUSED.

General managers of the twenty-three railroads entering Chicago declined to grant the demands of committees representing the switchmen's union, at a conference held in the rooms of the Western Passenger Association yesterday. The railroad officials renewed their offer of an increase of 2 cents an hour, but the men held firm for a greater increase.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

FEARFUL PAINS

SUGGESTIONS HOW WOMEN MAY FIND RELIEF.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. This is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. When pain exists something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

Thousands of women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes woman's special pains and irregularities.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches, and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the east advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural; every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound sooner; for I have tried so many remedies without help.

"I dreaded the approach of every month, as it meant so much pain and suffering for me, but after I had used the Compound two months I became regular and natural and am now perfectly well and free from pain. I am very grateful for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women.

When women are troubled with pain or irregularities, displacements or ulceration of the organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

No agreement could be arrived at, and the conference adjourned after making arrangements for another meeting.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, through General Superintendent Clark, yesterday made a statement that the demand of the switchmen for an increase of ten cents an hour in wages is unreasonable, and that the demand had been refused. The company, however, concedes a ten-hour day to all switchmen who now work twelve hours without any cut in wages, thus making the hours and the wages the same for this grade of work on all sections of the system. Chairman Flinn, of the switchmen's grievance committee, says the position taken by the company is unsatisfactory to the men.

The Cleveland, Ohio, Plain Dealer says: "An officer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen announced in Cleveland Monday that the members of that organization were ready and willing to fill the places of all engineers if the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers should declare a strike. This statement was made by E. B. Harris, chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen's joint protective board of the Lake Shore road and leased lines, who has just completed a tour over those roads to ascertain the views of the firemen with regard to joining in the general movement among railroad employes to secure higher pay and shorter hours.

THE DINING-ROOM

is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastily arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately.

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and livens up the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass required are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candelabra.

If you want your dining room to be just so have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining-room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your ownself begets attention from others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING. NOV. 7, 1906.

VIRGINIA'S congressional delegation will from a political standpoint remain unchanged. Nine out of the ten Representatives from the Old Dominion will be democrats. In the Ninth district Mr Slemp, republican, will be returned by a reduced majority, estimated at 1,000, although these figures may suffer from revision. The democratic battering rams have for years been directed at this portion of Virginia, and at the close of each campaign the breaches in the walls have been made wider. The republican party in Virginia has gradually declined since its management was turned over to Messrs. Slemp, Summers & Co. It was dreamed by certain party enthusiasts that this combination was to work wonders in Virginia; that recruits to the republican ranks would be received in droves and that in a short time the State would be found in the republican column. Mr Park Agnew, who had really kept the party together, was regarded as obsolete in his ideas, and it was supposed that with such "gladiators" as are mentioned above a republican tidal wave would work wonders in this State. The President was the dupe of these dreamers, and Mr. Agnew was deposed. The fact is apparent to all that the republican party has been retrogrsding ever since.

THE voters in the State of New York have repudiated William Randolph Hearst and given a set-back to the tide of socialism upon which the would-be governor desired to be wafted into the gubernatorial chair. The campaign has been strenuous from start to finish, those opposing Mr. Hearst realizing that the State was passing through a serious crisis, and that should he succeed, the country would be made to pass through a more dangerous ordeal during the next presidential campaign when Mr. Hearst's claims would have been urged in the democratic convention. The frost which settled over him yesterday will it is hoped for ever relieve the country from such anxiety. The party during the past quarter of a century has doubtless done something, it should not have done and left undone others which would have tended to its good, but the greatest of all blunders has been its thoughtlessness in allowing ambitious men, riding all sorts of hobbies, to pose as champions of democracy. The organization was already wearing prominent scars the result of such blunders, and Hearstism will be another at which the party's foes will point.

SHORTLY AFTER the nomination of Mr. Hearst by the democrats a former Alexandrian, who now resides in New York, but who was here on a visit, said to the editor of the Gazette that there was a report current in New York to the effect that Mr. Hearst had been put up to be knocked down. He said that Mr. Hearst had given the democrats much trouble and as it was predicted that he would continue to do so unless drastic measures were taken, the sensible men in the party had decided to let him have the nomination for Governor this time and then to beat him good and be done with him. From the result of yesterday's election it would seem that these men had accomplished their objectt for certainly Mr. Hearst was defeated by democratic votes.

THE CITY democratic committee seems to have gone out of business. So far as known they held no meeting during the campaign, and made no effort whatever collectively to conduct a canvass. Yesterday no canvassers were employed to bring out the voters, no vehicles were engaged to carry voters to the polls and the election was as quiet as a funeral. Some of the members of the committee made individual efforts to induce their friends to go to the polls and cast their votes but there was no committee action whatever. Consequently the total vote cast in this city was but 635.

THE true and honest democrats throughout the United States, men who have the interest of their country at heart, are today congratulating the party over the defeat of Mr. Hearst for governor of the Empire State. A combination of socialism, dishonesty, demagogy and tom-foolery is not to be tolerated by honest and sensible men.

THE VAST majority of democrats are party men, but when such men as Mr. Hearst are put at the head of the party in the largest State in the union, then many of them balk and many more don't care a rap if such democrats (?) are defeated.

IN THE election at large the democrats made notable gains in the number of Congressmen chosen, the extent of which is not yet known, but it is sufficient materially to reduce the republican majority of 112 in Congress by fully one-half.

MR. HEARST was defeated for Governor by about 35,000 majority. It is believed by many that but for the Roosevelt-Root speech made at Utica last week the majority would have been greater.

WHILE THE [illegible] d[illegible] was small yesterday, Mr. Rixey received a flattering majority which he well merited. He has made one of the most useful representatives this district has had in Congress for some years past.

THE RESULT of the election is easily explained. The enemy got there first with the most men.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Nov. 7.

The Mayflower with President and Mrs. Roosevelt on board, will weigh anchor for Piney Point tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock where the President will transfer to the battleship Louisiana upon which he will go to Panama. In order to accomodate themselves to the sailing hour the President and his party will leave the White House for the navy yard shortly after three. Surgeon General Rixey of the Navy and Assistant Secretary Latta of the White House force will accompany the President on the trip, and Lieutenant Frank Evans, son of Admiral Evans, will send daily bulletins to Secretary Loeb by wireless telegraphy which will keep the world informed of the President's health and activities. The President will be in his office tomorrow until 1:30 p. m., but will receive no visitors as he wishes to clear his desk of all routine business before leaving for Panama.

Officers of the general staff of the army endeavored today to discount the rumor that plans and other information relative to the defenses of Japan had been gathered recently by agents of this country. While the best informed military officials readily admit that war with Japan is among the possibilities of the future, they declare most emphatically that the general staff has not had military spies in Japan such as it is evident Japan has had in the Philippine. It was explained at the War Department today that the function of the general staff is to make preliminary plans for war with all possible enemies of this country. It is unquestionably true that the general staff has considered plans for military operations against Japan, but it is equally true that such plans have been discussed in connection with England, Germany, France, Italy and practically all the nations of any consequence in the world. It is the business of the general staff to gather military information about all countries and Japan has not been left out of the calculations of this body any more than have the other war-like powers of the world.

President Roosevelt was under the eye of a sculptor for a couple of hours this morning while he received other visitors on business or political missions. Mrs. Farnham, who is executing a bas relief of the President's profile, sat in his office studying the expression of his countenance, and, from time to time, making such changes in the clay before her as seemed to be made necessary by the living model. The bas relief is to be placed in the gymnasium of the Jacob Riis neighborhood house in New York. Instead of "Better Faithful than Famous," which was the original inscription, she has substituted: "Don't flinch, don't foul, hit the line hard." This quotation is one of the President's most forceful expressions, and was first addressed to a crowd of football players.

It is learned that the Department of Justice has directed the special district attorney at St. Louis to begin embezzlement proceedings in connection with the shortage in the U. S. sub-treasury at St. Louis.

As a result of a meeting held at the White House today between President Roosevelt and a delegation from the American Federation of Labor, a conference over the Pearre anti-injunction bill will be held soon after Congress convenes.

The agents of the Department of Justice who were appointed to investigate the charges made against Governor Frantz, of Oklahoma, have reported to the President completely exonerating the Governor.

Attorney General Moody announced today that he would take up the matter of the Standard Oil prosecution at once.

Government officials and citizens flocked to the White House to congratulate the President upon the result of the elections. Among the early morning callers were Secretaries Root, and Hitchcock and Attorney General Moody, and Justice Brewer. The President received messages of felicitation early in the day from many Senators and Representatives.

Newly Coined Words.

Senator Daniel's use of the coined word "politication" has inspired an article in one of the New York newspapers on coined words in general. The New York campaign has brought into being a number of such words. Mr. Hearst's papers coined the word, "plunderbund," which suggested to the Brooklyn Eagle the word "blunderbund" and to some other paper the word "slanderbund." Another hit was made by a speaker in New York who referred to Mr. Hearst's mental reservoir as "Hilbrane." Senator Daniel's word recalls to our mind the saying of a well known North Carolina farmer, who had a whole vocabulary of his own coinage. He was once called as an expert witness to prove, in a case at bar, what was a fair wage for a farm hand. He testified that under normal conditions he was accustomed to pay so and so, "but in busy seasons," he added, "when I am urgitated, I pay more."

"Urgitated" is a most expressive word, but scarcely less so than a word coined by a tired mother in a railway car, who was trying to pacify a fretful baby. "Ain't it worriting?" she said, with a look of appeal to a fellow-passenger. The fellow-passenger was a gentlewoman of culture, but she forthwith added the word to her vocabulary, and since then has often had occasion to use it to her comfort.—[Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Meagre details have reached Ottawa, Ont., of a terrific dynamite explosion at Lataque, Quebec, as the result of which three men were instantly killed. One other badly injured and eleven others more or less injured. The victims were employed on the railway construction works there.

The State of Virginia will sell an immense amount of rags, consisting of old uniforms issued to the soldiers of the State, the accumulations of years. They are sold by the order of the War Department, and every garment has been cut and slashed to a degree that will make it impossible for any piece to be utilized for wearing garments. The sale will occur at the old Cavalry Armory, Richmond, Thursday morning.

Edward M. Fry, who said he lived at Marshall, Fauquier county, was arrested in Washington about 10 o'clock last night by Bicycle Policeman Peterson, of the Ninth precinct, on the charge of taking a watch from the pocket of Dennis E McNamara, 808 Tenth street northwest. According to the police of the Ninth precinct, Fry was caught in the act of taking the watch from McNamara's pocket When searched at the station house, $225 in currency and two turquoise rings were found in his possession. Fry said he was on his way from New York to Virginia and stopped over in Washington to receive the election returns. He says he met several congenial companions and numerous drinks were indulged in. The police say that Fry admits the theft, but claims that he was intoxicated at the time. He was charged with larceny from the person, and will be given a hearing in the Police Court today.

JUDGE LEAKE RESIGNS.

President William Josiah Leake, of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and Washington-Southern Railway companies, will retire as the head of the two organizations at the meeting of the directors to be held on November 19th, in Richmond.

It is said that Judge Leake has had this step under consideration for some time past on account of his law practice, which he has been forced somewhat to neglect for his onerous railway duties. As long as twelve months back, at a meeting of the board of directors, Judge Leake announced that unless certain changes were made he would be forced to retire. The changes that he suggested were made and he continued in office, but, it was understood, at a great personal sacrifice.

The news now comes that Judge Leake will sever his connection with the roads as president, but will probably continue to hold his position as general counsel of the companies, which he has occupied since 1870. Who will be his successor is not known in Richmond, where, indeed, the announcement of his approaching retirement was learned for the first time this morning.

When Governor Swanson and the Virginia Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners heard of the action of Judge Leake, they at once took up the matter with the directors, urging them not to accept his resignation and setting out that it would be fatal to the State's interest to allow a change in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac. It is said that they urged that Judge Leake's salary be largely increased, and that if it were necessary the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac would pay it all, charging nothing to the Washington-Southern in order to retain Judge Leake.

A prominent railroad official said last night that the entire matter was one of salary, and that the directors could not afford to be close-handed at a time when so much depended on retaining a president who enjoys the esteem of the entire State.—[Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Steamer and Barge Collide.

New York, Nov. 7.—In a collision in Hellgate today between the freight barge Maryland, bearing the famous Congressional Express, and the New Bedford line steamboat Maine, 200 passengers on the steamboat were thrown into unreasoning panic which nearly resulted in disaster. The train was crowded, too, and its passengers seeing the peril of their boat added to the panic by their shouts and screams. Had it not been for the presence of mind of the Maine's captain in beaching the swiftly sinking steamer it is possible that lives would have been lost. However, in the few moments after the crash the panic was such that the crew had to restrain passengers from jumping overboard or trying to launch the life boats for themselves. The Maine was bound from Bridgeport, Conn., for New York. The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad ferry Maryland was carrying across the Congressional Express just as the Maine reached Hellgate. The current was stronger than usual, and before the captain could avert the collision she had been carried on to the cumbersome barge, tearing away forty feet of her side above the water line She rolled over and for a moment it looked as if she would turn turtle. Passengers rushed from their cabins in terror. The Maryland launched her life boats, but the Maine's captain immediately put on full steam and ran her aground on the mud flats off Eighty-ninth street. The passengers were landed by boats at the recreation pier there.

General Stoessel, the defender of Port Arthur, is reported to be in such financial straits that he has applied to a charitable institution for wounded soldiers for aid to enable him to employ a servant.

YESTERDAY'S ELECTIONS.

Elections were held yesterday in forty-two States.

The result of the election in Virginia shows that the State has gone democratic by less than the nominal majorities. The republicans succeeded in retaining the Ninth district in spite of the hopes and work of the democrats to wrest victory from them and send a solid democratic delegation to Congress. General apathy among the voters throughout the State was apparent, except in the Ninth and Fifth districts, and in the latter the vote was comparatively small. The democratic plurality in the State will probably exceed 30,000

The Ninth district was the real fighting ground. The democrats made substantial gains throughout the district. Slemp's estimated plurality over Bruce is about 1,200. Slemp's estimated majorities reported are: Wise county, 370; Dickenson, 50; Lee, 270; Russell, 300; Scott, 150. Bruce carried Bristol by 114 and Washington county by 200, a democratic gain in Washington county of 470. Corrected returns give Bruce Pulaski county by 250, and Bruce's majority in Bland county is 200. Slemp's majority in Wythe county is 456. With two small precincts to hear from, Giles county gives Bruce 194 majority over Slemp, republican.

In the Fifth district Judge E W. Saunders, of Franklin, the democratic nominee, won over J. W. Simmons, of Martinsville, by the small plurality of 600. The apathy among the voters in the Fifth was very marked.

In the other districts in the State there was no real opposition. The republicans had put up candidates in all districts except the Fourth, but this was only for the purpose of holding the party together for other fights.

The republicans retain control of the House of Congress by about 60 majority. Most of the old leaders, Speaker Cannon, Chairman Payne, of the ways and means committee; Chairman Tawney, of the appropriations committee, and leader of the majority; Representative Dalzell, of the rules committee; Representative Longworth, the son-in-law of President Roosevelt, are re-elected.

The present Senate consists of 57 republicans and 33 democrats, a republican majority of 24. The returns indicate that in the Sixtieth Congress the Senate will stand: republicans, 61; democrats, 29; republican majority, 32.

The present standing of the House is: republicans, 249; democrats, 137; republican majority, 112. The indications are that the republicans in the next Congress will have over 60 majority.

In New York, Charles E. Hughes, republican, while losing nearly all of the principal cities of the State, defeated William R. Hearst for governor by about 35,000 plurality. The rural districts brought about the republican victory. Hughes received about 115,000 above the Bronx while Hearst carried greater New York by about 80,000. In New York City the Tammany-Independence League judiciary ticket was successful, with possibly one exception, over the candidates named by the nonpartisan "judiciary nominators." Hearst carried every borough of the greater city. His pluralities in round numbers were: Manhattan and The Bronx, 70,000; Brooklyn 3,000; Queens, 6,000; Richmond, 1,000. His plurality in the whole city was therefore about 80,000.

Massachusetts has re-elected Curtis Guild, republican, as governor over District Attorney John B. Moran, of Boston, who was the candidate of the democratic party, the independence league, and the prohibitionists.

In Chicago it is estimated that the independence league ticket polled 40,000, but there was a republican plurality for the State officers.

New Hampshire, North Dakota, Connecticut and Wisconsin have rolled up republican pluralities, although there was some falling off from the usual vote in Iowa. Nebraska, Mr. Bryan's State, shows big republican gains. Ohio shows republican gains over the Pattison vote of last year. The republicans expect a plurality of 75,000 in the State.

The constitution of the new State of Oklahama will be written by democrats. The Indians voted the democratic ticket almost solidly. Oklahoma also went strongly democratic in delegates to the constitutional convention.

New Mexico voted favorably on the proposition to enter the Union jointly with Arizona as a single State, but Arizona voted three to one against joint statehood and re-elected Smith, democrat, as delegate to Congress.

Gov Hoch, republican, is re-elected in Kansas by a slightly reduced majority. The vote in Missouri was close. The democrats gained some of the Congressional districts they lost two years ago.

The most exciting campaign in Pennsylvania in twenty-five years ended in a triumph for Stuart (rep.), for governor, over Lewis Emery, jr. (dem. and Lincoln party), by a plurality that the republican leaders claim will reach 100,000. Rotan (rep) was elected district attorney in Philadelphia by a vote which his friends claim will exceed 40,000, defeating Gibboney, who had the support of the reform forces and the democrats. The incoming legislature will be strongly republican.

Maryland will send a divided delegation to Congress, the division being the same as now, three democrats and three republicans. The republicans gained one member in the First district, but lost a member in the Third. Ex-Congressman Jackson republican carried the First over Thomas A. Smith, democrats, who sought a re-election. In the Third district, now represented by Congressman Wachter, Harry B. Wolf, democrat, defeated Wm. M Johnson, republican, by 800 votes. The republicans carried Baltimore.

Election returns show that the democrats swept North Carolina, even defeating Blackburn for congress in the Eighth district.

The republicans carried Delaware and besides the re-election of Congressman Hiram R. Burton (republican,) of Lewes, over ex-Judge David T. Marvel (democrat), of Wilmington, by an estimated majority of 1,000, the party will also control the next legislature and re-elect a successor to United States Senator Allee (republican).

Telegrams from all over the State of Kentucky indicate that James B. McCreery has defeated Governor J. C. W. Beckham for United States senator by twenty thousand majority.

Iowa rolls up a big republican plural-

Lewis S. Chanler, democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, and the rest of the democratic ticket in this State have undoubtedly been elected. Latest returns this morning from the city and upstate indicate this, though the final figures will not be known for hours, as returns from some counties are coming in slowly.

Returns from greater New York, with nine election districts missing, show that Chanler ran over 58,000 ahead of Hearst. Chanler's plurality in greater New York is about 135,000. Belated returns on the rest of the democratic ticket from up state show that Hearst ran behind his ticket. This plainly indicates the election of Chanler and the rest of the democratic nominees on the ticket.

THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION.

Curtis Guild, jr., republican, defeated John D. Moran for governor of Massachusetts by more than 30,000.

Connecticut re-elected its republican State officials.

Rhode Island swung back into the democratic column, electing Higgins.

New Hampshire apparently elects Floyd, but his plurality is so small the legislature must pass upon the result.

New York elected Hughes, republican, over Hearst.

California elected Gillett and incidentally snowed under the Hearst independence candidate, who was an indifferent third.

Colorado repudiated Alva Adams, the democrat, who said he was robbed at the polls at the last election, and swung well into the republican column.

Iowo was torn by opinions, and both parties claim the victory.

Michigan gave its usual 100,000 for the republican State ticket.

Bryan's influence could not carry Nebraska for the democrats, and it also is republican.

The two Dakotas have elected republican State tickets.

Texas polled 250,000 votes and gave 200,000 of them for the democratic ticket.

The movement in Philadelphia and through Pennsylvania inaugurated last year as a result of Philadelphia Gas Lease fight received a severe blow in the election. The latest figures show that everwhere in the city and the state the fusion party opposed to the regular republicans were either badly defeated or had its last year's vote greatly reduced.

Tennessee joked with Henry Clay Evans, ex-republican Commissioner of Pension, and then defeated him by 15,000 electing by the usual off year plurality the democratic ticket.

Idaho seems to have gone democratic.

Kansas consistently run its gubernatorial candidate, Hoch, behind in the early hours and came to his rescue in time to ensure his election by an "off year's" plurality.

Alabama went democratic.

Congress will still be republican.

Mr. Cannon had a hard fight, but won out with a plurality of 7,500. At present indications are that the only Congressman of national prominence defeated is Jas. W. Wadsworth, called "Beef Trust Jim," because of his opposition to President Roosevelt's packing house reform plans.

Arizona and New Mexico would not stand for President Roosevelt's plan for joint statehood and have defeated the proposition.

Missouri is still in doubt. It is probably democractic but less than half the counties have been heard from. The republicans claim it by a small majority; the democrats by 18,000.

Ohio has gone republican by about 75,000. The democrats have elected congressmen in the fourth, fifth, sixth, tenth, and seventeenth districts, a gain of four over their present delegation in the House, Nick Longworth got in with 4,000 plurality.

Hearst Not Yet Out of the Fight.

New York, Nov. 7.—That Hearst is not yet out of the fight, but is likely again to enter the list for political honors, is indicated in a statement which he gave out early today, when the result of the votes in New York, Massachusetts, Illinois, and California, in all of which states he had tickets in the field, became known.

"In view of the result, I have only to repeat what I have said in my speeches. I am enlisted in this fight against the people in government by the trusts and corrupt corporations and I will fight it out to the end. But I will serve in the lead or in the ranks, just exactly as the people desire, and as earnestly and loyally in one place as in the other. The people have decided to retain the republican party in power. I will make my fight in the ranks, therefore, and as a private citizen do my best to promote the interests of my fellow citizens.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST.

Statement from Croker.

London, Nov. 7.—Mr. Croker hints that he believes change in leadership of the democratic party in New York is needed.

Indirectly he indicates that Senator P. H. McCarren who fought Hearst openly is the proper man for State leader.

The news of Hughes election was first given to Mr. Croker at his home at Sandyford, Ireland, by a correspondent of the Publishers Press. He stated that he was extremely gratified over the outcome of the election and said:

"I suppose Hearst will now say he was robbed, dispite the fact that such a big majority was filed against him."

The largely vote Hearst polled in New York City was clearly a surprise to Mr. Croker, but he was ready with an explanation.

Said he:

"I suppose this was due to the fact that most Tammany men want to be 'regular' above everything. The fault was not theirs. The mischief was done when Hearst was nominated.

"I do not care to indicate what New York democrats should now do. It is not for me to suggest that Senator McCarren should become State leader. If I should say anything like that, I will be accuse of 'butting in.' People on the spot should know more about

The Castellane Divorce Case.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Some intensely interesting correspondence in the Castellane case that passed between the count and countess after their separation when Boni was begging for forgiveness is referred to. In one of her letters the countess referred to Boni as "stabbing." Another sensational charge made against Boni in addition to the allegations made that he is a wife beater, spend thrift and dress lover is that one of the documents presented by him is a forgery.

Silveira's Affairs.

Havana, Nov. 7.—John T. Durant, member of a local legal firm, today assumed the management of the affairs of Manuel Silveira, the missing banker, whose flight to Venezuela with funds said to be due to Ceballos & Co. and other creditors of New York resulted in the wrecking of the Ceballos concern. Silveira's affairs will be wound up, the creditors securing what they can on the assets of the firm.

Cigarmakers' Strike.

A Washington cigar manufacturer in an interview yesterday said: "We shall simply consider the demand of the union workmen for an increase in wages. * * * Seventy-five per cent. of the cigars consumed in Washington are non-union goods, manufactured in Maryland and Pennsylvania, and are sold wholesale at figures with which Washington manufacturers cannot compete.

"Position of the larger manufacturers with regard to the demand for increased wages is simply that within a year the cost of tobacco has advanced 25 per cent, yet we cannot get a penny more for the manufactured product. Now comes the demand for increased cost of production, and employers cannot grant the increased scale asked for. We have sounded our customers on increasing the price of goods and have ascertained that they will not pay more. We would be glad to give the workmen what they ask for if we could afford it, but it cannot be done."

Only about thirty men are out of work on account of the strike in Washington. Three manufacturers have not granted the demand of the union, and have asked for an extension of time to consider the matter.

The Election.

The election in this city yesterday was quiet and uninteresting throughout. Hon. John F. Rixey, the democratic candidate for Congress, was antagonized by Mr. J. B. Henderson, who had been nominated by the republicans of this district. The latter had thrown up the sponge weeks ago, realizing that the Eighth district is a Gibraltar of democracy; hence returns announced after sunset surprised no one. The following was the result in this city:

First ward—Rixey, 153; Henderson, 23.
Second ward—Rixey, 167; Henderson, 12.
Third ward—Rixey, 137; Henderson, 17.
Fourth ward—Rixey, 114; Henderson, 9.

The total vote was: First ward, 177; Second, 179; Third, 155; Fourth, 124; total 635.

The vote in Alexandria county was as follows:

Arlington district—Rixey, 72; Henderson, 36.
Washington district—Rixey, 27; Henderson, 9.
Jefferson district—Rixey, 29; Henderson, 3.

Interest centered on the result in New York, and early in the night crowds gathered on King street where dispatches were being bulletined; also at the telegraph offices whese dispatches were being constantly received. For several hours the bulletins kept up a sort of seesaw between Messrs. Hughes and Hearst, and the result was doubtful almost up to midnight. Some dispatches, however, were ominous, and tended to show that the republican candidate was leading, although by a nose only. It was not until an early hour this morning that it was definitely known that Hearst was the loser.

The Eighth District.

In the Eighth district a majority of from 5,000 to 6,000 is claimed for Mr. Rixey, democrat, over Mr. J. B. Henderson, republican, but returns are too incomplete to give more than the round figures on the result. Everywhere Mr. Rixey has won by majorities which are limited only by the light vote polled. Alexandria city gave Mr. Rixey 590 majority; Alexandria county 100; Loudoun about 425; Fauquier about 500; Culpeper about 700; Orange about 275; Prince William about 550; Louisa about 300; and Fairfax about 550 majority. Nothing has been heard from King George and Stafford counties.

Prospect for Manufactories.

The announcement in the Gazette yesterday that representatives of a Brooklyn clothing manufactory were in this city on a prospecting trip with the intention of placing a branch factory in Alexandria was read with satisfaction, and several persons who own or have charge of property which could be utilized for the purposes of the Brooklyn manufacturers are now in communication with them. There seemed to be one guaranty the visitors sought, and that was to be assured that they could secure the services of at least two hundred young women. They were told that this was possible, as many young women living in the vicinity of Alexandria would be drawn to this city if they could secure remunerative employment, while numbers who now live here would also appreciate such positions. Besides this there is every reason to believe that a large percentage of the mechanics who will be employed at the new steel works at Geisboro will reside in Alexandria. Female members of the families of such would doubtless avail themselves of the opportunity of securing work in a factory. In about a month from this time the new electric works will be in operation, ready to furnish the necessary power to all manufacturers who may desire to locate here.

Charming Entertainment.

The regular monthly meeting of the Colonial Dames, of this city, was made the occasion last evening of one of the most charming entertainments of the season, by Mrs. L. Wilber Reid, at whose residence on Duke street the meeting was held. Mrs. Reid had extended invitations to the Mt. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., of which she is a prominent member, to meet the Colonial Dames, and by eight o'clock a brillant reception began. Mrs. Reid was assisted in receiving her guests by her daughter, Mrs. Emmett C. Dunn.

An interesting feature of the evening was a literary contest, which gave rise to not only deep thought but to much merriment. The closely contested prize, for having made the best record, was awarded Mrs. Wm. Wattles. Later in the evening the guests were invited into the spacious dining room, where a beautifully appointed supper was served on small tables, on each one of which the color scheme of "the blue and the buff" was carried out in the minutest detail.

Sent to Jail for Ninety Days.

At a late hour last night Officers Knight and Ferguson, while on duty in the northwestern section of the city, were notified that two men were endeavoring to break into house No. 312 north Alfred street. The officers hastened to the scene where they found Ollie Lear, colored, and placed him under arrest. His companion escaped. Several attempts had been made by the two men to enter the house, and they were endeavoring to cut through the front door when the officers appeared. Lear, some time after being placed under arrest, feigned drunkenness, and when taken before Justice Caton this morning acted well his part, pretending to be oblivious to what was going on. He was sent to jail for 90 days. Lear was arrested by Officers Bell and Henderson on Monday night for drunken and disorderly conduct, but was dismissed yesterday morning. This was the only case before the Police Court this morning.

Taken to Washington.

Policeman McQuade, of Washington, came to this city yesterday afternoon to get George T. Preston, colored, who is wanted to answer a charge of assault. It is alleged that he used an iron bar in striking John W. Matthews, also colored, and a fractured his skull. The trouble occured at the government printing office about ten days ago, and both Preston and Matthews, it is said, who were employed there were suspended.

Earl Burgess Company.

Another good drama, with excellent specialties, was presented to a crowded house by the Earl Burgess Company at the Opera House, last night, the attraction being "A Daughter of the South." Every character was portrayed in a creditable manner and a fine presenation given. Tonight the "Queen of the White Slaves" will be presented, one of the greatest sensational plays ever written. It is a novel departure from the hackneyed and time-worn plots of the usual conventional melodrama and tells a coherent and well known story. The story relates to the abduction of a beautiful young and refined woman by agents of the "Terrible Nine," a San Francisco branch of the infamous "Highbinders," her rescue through the instrumentality of a brave detective; his marvelous escape from a horrible fate, and his rescue by a young woman, who herself has been stolen and brought to China by the same gang. There are many subsidiary characters, all of them true types of this great play.

The Shipyard.

The pile driving machine belonging to Aitcheson & Brother which was employed at Glymont for several days rebuilding the wharf there, has been brought here and is now at work rebuilding the wharf of the shipyard in preparation for the rebuilding of the marine railway, which was damaged by the fire about two weeks ago. The machinery for raising and lowering the cradle of the railway will be placed in position as soon as it arrives at Alexandria from the manufacturers. The burning of the Alexandria marine railway has caused considerable inconvenience to vessel owners here, who are unable to have their boats hauled out for necessary repair work.

Death of Aged Woman.

Mary Hyson, colored, who is said to have been 120 years old, died Saturday at her home, in Washington a few, days ago. Among the interesting historical events of which the aged woman often told was the inauguration of John Adams, second President of the United States, in 1796. She claimed to have been ten years old at that time. The deceased was formerly a slave, belonging to the Brockett family, in this city. Louisa Lacy, a sister, died in Alexandria a few years ago, at the age of 105 years. Eli Nugent, a brother, of almost equal age, is still living in Cincinnati, Ohio. Leana Jones, a daughter, sixty-two years old, died at her home, Monday, October 29.

The Through Freight Traffic

The tugboat Major Brewerton and the barge upon which cars were for many years transferred from the Wilkes street slip to Shepherd's, on the opposite side of the river, are still lying at this port. All the crew except the engineer and fireman of the tugboat have been discharged. No one hereabouts seems to know what disposition is to be made of the tugboat and barge. Southern, Chesapeake and Ohio and Baltimore and Ohio freight trains now pass over the Washington-Southern tracks. Henry street track is being repaired and placed in a proper condition for the passage of freight trains.

Woman's Auxiliary.

At the regular monthly meeting, of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp, held in Confederate Veterans' building last night, there was a large number present, and much interest evinced in the reports of the various committees. The committee on the excursion to Luna Park turned in quite a nice little sum to the organization despite the inclemency of the weather on the day of the proposed outing to the park. Cream and cake was served the members and a pleasant evening was spent by all present.

Circuit Court for the City.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

J. Louis Loose vs. Southern Railway Co., a suit for $20,000 for damages alleged to have been done to the plaintiff's greenhouses and gardens by smoke, cinders, etc., from the defendant company's engines, machine shops, etc; jury and case in progress. A night session will be held.

Nothing Doing.

A resident of lower Fairfax county about 10 o'clock yesterday went to the polls to vote. When he reached the polling place he could find no one about the house and started back home. Passing a neighbor he asked where the election was being held and was told that as the voting was so slow the judges had closed the polls and gone hunting.

The Sweet Family.

The "Sweet Family" will give a unique entertainment at the Methodist Protestant Church, Thursday night, November 15th. Several new features have been added to this entertainment, and all who attend will spend a pleasant and amusing evening. Every one who enjoys a good laugh should see this entertainment.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

A well attended meeting of the Junior Local Assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, was held last night at St. Paul's Church. The programme included addresses by Mr. J. Lewis Gibbs, president of the Washington Local Assembly, and Mr. Clark Starnell, of Grace Church Chapter.

Erecting a Gibbet.

Preparations have been made for the erection of the scaffold on which Joseph Thomas, colored, alias John Wright, sentenced to death in Alexandria county for criminal assault, will be executed on December 14. The contract for the building of a scaffold has been awarded to a county contractor. The execution will take place within an inclosure adjacent to the jail building.

Mr. J. Matthews, who has recently been confined to his home by sickness, is improving.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Deputy Sheriff R. M. Waller of Spotsylvania, went to Alexandria county yesterday for John Glasgow, colored, who is wanted in Spotsylvania for assault on Fletcher Brown last July. Glasgow was arrested there Monday.

While Officer Jones was trying to make an arrest last night on north Pitt street he called Mr. Andrew Deeton to head off the fleeing man. Mr. Deeton in attempting to do so, fell and hurt his shoulder.

The Pope and America.

The Pope on Monday gave a farewell audience to the Rt. Rev. Maurice F. Burke, Bishop of St. Joseph, Mo. In the course of a lengthy conversation the pontiff expressed his gratitude to Americans, irrespective of creed. He said he regarded them as a good christian people. At the audiences he had granted them they gave every evidence that they all respected the church and venerated him. Hence, his admiration and gratitude were unbounded.

Amid the troubles experienced by the church in other parts of the world he remembered that America was the only country in which it was always free from persecution, thanks to the government, which was most praiseworthy. The pontiff concluded by expressing special affection for the Americans and blessing them heartily.

Knew From Experience.

"I say," said a friend the other day, "you are an old hand at it. I have only just got married, and don't understand much about the business, but has a married man any rights left when he once assumes the hymeneal responsibilities?"

"Rights? Yes, lots! He's a right to pay all the bills, to"—

"Stop. I mean this. Let me give you an instance. Every box and drawer and portmanteau and, in fact, every available receptacle of every description is stuffed full of my wife's property and when I want to put away a few cuffs and collars"—

"Hold hard! I know what you mean. Listen, young man. If your bedroom were 200 yards long and lined from the floor to the ceiling with drawers and you wanted a place to stow away a couple of collars, you couldn't find a nook that wasn't full of hairpins, tufts of frizzes, pads, scent boxes, old gloves, powder puffs, rings and things. So just accept the inevitable. Wrap your personal property in an old newspaper or some brown paper and hide the parcel under the bed."

The inquirer smiled loudly and ironically and passed on a wiser if not a better man.

A Story of Ole Bull.

A curious tale of Ole Bull is told in a book on violins and violinists. It seems that in 1831, being then twenty-one years of age, the famous violinist wandered to Paris. The cholera was raging and Malibran singing. He went to hear her, and his landlord decamped with his possessions, including his violin. He was speedily reduced to extremity. During the last dinner that he was able to pay for he made the acquaintance of a remarkable man. To this stranger Ole Bull confided his miseries. At the conclusion the stranger said abruptly, "Well, I will do something for you if you have courage and 5 francs." "I have both," said Bull. "Then go to Frascati's tonight at 10 o'clock, pass through the first room, go into the second, where they play rouge et noir, and when a new taille begins put your 5 francs on rouge and leave it there." Bull did as directed, and when his 5 francs had become 400 he took them up after an episode with a woman who attempted to take them. Red continued to win, and had he left his money longer he would have won an independent sum. The stranger, who was present as his elbow, was Vidocq, the French detective, already a European celebrity.

Eskimo Throwing Sticks.

A "throwing stick," "throwing board" or "spear thrower," as it is sometimes called, is a contrivance for casting a javelin or harpoon, which is employed by various savage races, such as the Australians, some South American tribes and especially by the Eskimos, among whom its use is almost universal. Roughly speaking, it is a narrow grooved board a foot or so long, with one end cut into a handle and the other provided with a stud or spur for the butt of the spear to rest against. It is used thus: Grasping the handle as he would a sword, the man fits the shaft of the spear into the groove, with the butt resting against the stud, steadying the spear with the finger. Then, extending his arm and bending back his hand till the spear lies horizontal, he aims at the mark and propels the weapon by a quick forward jerk of the stick. In this way I have seen Eskimo boys casting their forked javelins at wounded waterfowl.

When Buchanan Was King.

George Buchanan was a scholar, historian, controversialist and the best Latin poet of his age. Buchanan was tutor to Mary, queen of Scots, and to her son James, afterward James I. of England. One day he caused himself to be made king of Scotland, and this was the way of it: Having observed in James a tendency to too ready acquiescence, he drew up a paper for the royal pupil to sign. James did so at once without having read it. The document happened to be a transfer of the royal authority to Buchanan for fifteen days, and no sooner had the poet got it into his possession than he began to play the monarch, even before the king himself. James thought the man a lunatic until the instrument was produced by which he had signed away his sovereignty. This incident was used by the worthy preceptor to illustrate the day's lesson on the responsibilities of monarchs.

Monkeys as Nurses.

"Monkeys make poor nurses," said a zoo keeper. "When they live near a stream of water and one of the colony falls sick they invariably toss him overboard. They don't want him around. His sighs and groans annoy them so. 'Psst! Off the dock!'
"Here in captivity I have to remove at once a sick monkey from his comrades' reach. Otherwise they would soon kill him. When they can, well monkeys take a strange joy in tormenting an invalid. They bite the end of his tail, they drag him about, and they pinch him. Finally, when he dies, as many as can find room sit on his body, close together, very solemn, as though engaged in some religious rite."

Fixed Bayonets.

It is said that during the siege of Ladysmith in the Boer war the assault column of British, advancing in thick darkness, climbed up an almost precipitous wall. Once or twice they were faintly challenged. At last a Boer recognized them and shouted to the sentry to fire on the "verdomde rooineks!" As the crest was gained the fire broke out. A few of the attackers began to reply, but they were stopped, and the voice of the commanding officer was heard to give the order, "Fix bayonets!" That there were no bayonets did not matter. The men, taking up the cry, rushed on the Boer gunners, who fled at the thought of the cold steel.

The Streets of Peru.

The streets of Peru, especially on gala days or when they wear the special dress of some celebration, are said to be among the most picturesque in the world. In their narrow proportions they resemble somewhat the streets of China, and the variety and contrast of the colors used in decoration may be compared with the Chinese. There is, however, a distinct Latin character to the decoration, which lends them an atmosphere entirely their own.

No Guarantee.

A sporting paper recommends a certain way of avoiding the bites of a dog, however savage. All one has to do is to stand perfectly still and hold one's hand out. The dog, says the writer, will take the hand in his mouth, but will not bite it. But what guarantee have we that the dog knows this?—London Globe.

He Might Be Needed.
